To Do: Complete NFO Survey by July 29
This is a friendly reminder to complete the NFO survey. We have extended the deadline to Friday, July 29. As we prepare to welcome you to New Faculty Orientation on August 15 and August 16, we need your help with the final touches for the event.

"The Town Common features 21 acres of open greenspace located adjacent to the Uptown Greenville District. The Town Common is connected to the South Greenville Greenway by paved walk-ways, the Town Creek Bridge, and a 1500-foot river walk along the Tar River. Feeding into the Pamlico Sound, this peaceful river provides opportunities for fishing, boating, and kayaking. The river also serves as a beautiful backdrop for the Greenville Toyota Amphitheatre, where the community comes together to relax and enjoy live music during the Sunday in the Park Summer Concert Series, Greenville Grooves Music Festival, PirateFest, and many other annual events."

A great place to bring the family, Town Common also features an inclusive playground.

PIRATE CHECKLIST #1

Purchase a Parking Permit

Parking registration for faculty and staff began July 18 at 8am. New permanent employees are eligible for B1 permits and must place themselves on a waitlist for an A1 permit.

Information about Faculty/Staff Parking
Safe Zone training is an opportunity for people to talk, learn, and ask questions about sexuality and gender in a non-judgmental, safe, educational environment. The purpose of Safe Zone is to create a network of allies who are willing to talk to students about sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression. Trainings are offered throughout the year on Main Campus and the Health Sciences Campus. Each session is three hours in length and includes a panel of students who share their experiences as members of the LGBTQ community on campus. You can attend a training session at the below date.

Upcoming Training Session:

Wednesday, August 3 from Noon to 3 pm in Laupus Library, Room 1506

DID YOU KNOW?

About Intercultural Affairs at ECU!
Housing the Center for Leadership and Civic Engagement, Dr. Jesse R. Peel LGBTQ Center, Ledonia Wright Cultural Center, Student Veteran Services, and the Women and Gender Office, Intercultural Affairs "develops programs and services that facilitate cross-cultural dialogue, promotes cultural competency development, and engages the community in reflective experiences which encourage self-exploration and challenges bias of race, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, religion, sexual orientation, disability, social class, or other distinctions" and is devoted "to the values of: servant leadership, innovation and transformation, safety, community, collaboration, honesty and integrity, inclusive excellence, person-centeredness, respect, and advocacy."
THE ARTS AT ECU

When the academic year is in full swing, the College of Fine Arts and Communication offers more than 200 arts events for your enjoyment. Occasionally, one could attend an iron pour, an exhibition reception, a concert, and a musical in one single, well-paced day.

This summer, a production of "Mamma Mia!" marked the return of ECU's Summer Theatre. The School of Theatre and Dance hosted the event with recently graduated and current students playing the leads.
Visit the College of Fine Arts and Communication website to learn more about upcoming events around ECU.
Have a great week! Stay tuned for the next newsletter!

THE CUPOLA

The Cupola that sits in the mall is a larger replica of the cupola that sat on top of the old Austin building. While it is tradition for graduating seniors to walk under the Cupola, there is a legend that if they walk under the Cupola before graduating, they will not graduate in four years.
