

Research Summary

The ECU College of Nursing Unit Code of Operations sets forth minimum requirements for promotion to the rank of Professor. Below is a summary demonstrating my accomplishment of select criteria.

Standard: Demonstrates leadership in research and scholarly activity which is recognized on a national/international level
Demonstrates a consistent record of funded research/creative activity	2013 to date: Internal and external grants totaling $1,392,627
Publishes manuscripts, monographs, books or book chapters that demonstrate a synthesis of research or creative activity	Peer-reviewed – 1 book chapter, 14 articles (8 data-based), 11 presentations (5 data-based), 14 posters (10 data-based), 2 abstracts in proceedings (data-based)
Serves as an editor or member of an editorial board	-2014-2017 editorial board member, Journal of the Association of Nurses in AIDS Care -2017 Special edition co-editor, Journal of the Association of Nurses in AIDS Care
Chairs doctoral dissertation committees or thesis committees	-Chair of two doctoral dissertations -Co-chair of two doctoral dissertations (currently serving as a member of one dissertation committee)
Serves on national review committees, boards or commissions related to research.	2017-2020 director-at-large, elected position, Board of Directors for the Association of Nurses in AIDS Care, international professional society
Serves as a principal investigator of an interdisciplinary research team.	-PI – bariatric surgery team with nursing and social work -Co-PI and ADRD director GWEP – nursing, medicine, physician assistant, pharmacy, community aging leaders -co-I on team of nursing, computer science, engineering, occupational health, and medicine (preparing proposal submission Dec. 2020)
Provides consultation to researchers at other universities or in other disciplines.	-consultant, ECU CON grant with Courtney Caiola PI on HIV care for African American women PA-18-723 (submission December 2020) -consultant, ECU CON Bil-Core Pro grant -Content expert, external consultant UNC-G PhD student -External reviewer for tenure and promotion – George Washington University -External reviewer for promotion in title – Duke University

Demonstrates that research/creative activity is cited by others in the field and used to advance knowledge in a particular area	According to ResearchGate statistics, since 2013 my work is steadily increasing in reads from average of 7 to 15 (of entered articles) <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>-Aging work: 2018 student-led paper has 3 citations and 155 reads</li><li>-Bariatric surgery: article has 6 citations and the student paper in 2020 has had 15 reads</li><li>-HIV work: cited 13 times with 15 reads of the special edition editorial</li></ul> Featured in editorial 2019 for bariatric work (AORN)
--	--